The Resje Guesthouse and Bed and Breakfast is located on the edge of The Triglav National Park in the Nemški Rovt village. This is a pleasant old village, surrounded by forests, pastures and meadows. Their menu is not the longest, because they prefer quality over quantity. The menu choices may seem modest, but they promise that their flavours are always lavish. Their head chef and owner Jože Godec of the Resje Bed and Breakfast, is the man behind the idea of traditional Slovenian dishes, prepared in a modern way.
